GovOffice is the nation's leading provider of local government Web sites and content management systems. With its new powerful interactive modules, GovOffice is helping local governments deliver a wide range of eGovernment services and solutions. Developed by local governments, GovOffice is made possible through a partnership of State Municipal Leagues, the International City/County Management Association, Microsoft® and Avenet Web Solutions.

SuperForms Provides Powerful Interactive Solutions

The GovOffice Superforms™ module enables local governments to rapidly build and deploy a wide range of online forms to deliver eGovernment services. Within minutes you can create permits, applications, questionnaires, surveys and much more.

SuperForms are cost effective and improve productivity, saving time and dollars.

- They eliminate duplicate efforts and errors.
- They centralize forms and functionality.
- They reduce printing, storage, and distribution costs.
- They reduce labor, administrative, maintenance and deployment costs.
- They allow you to make the forms you want—no size requirements.
- You can make as many forms as you wish.

ACE: Your e-Commerce solution

The Avenet Commerce Engine (ACE™) provides a secure environment for online transactions within your site. Integrated with PayPal®, the global leader in online payments, ACE accepts credit cards, eChecks, or an existing PayPal® account for transaction payments.

ACE's powerful features include product catalogs with inventory controls, fixed-amount donations, shipping and tax estimates, plus much more!

Combine ACE and SuperForms for the ultimate flexibility and power. Create robust online forms with full-commerce capabilities including online reservations, electronic permit applications with payment.

- ACE and SuperForms integrate effortlessly with existing GovOffice Web sites, offering a seamless design and navigation.
- ACE and SuperForms can be purchased and used individually as well.

The GovOffice Difference—ICMA Benefit

GovOffice enables you to build a sophisticated state-of-the-art Web site efficiently and affordably, at a fraction of the cost of traditional Web site development or commercial content management systems. Not only is our pricing based upon population to make it affordable for all communities, but ICMA members receive a significant discount.

For a no-obligation, 30-day free trial of GovOffice, call 1-877-564-4979 or visit us at www.govoffice.com.
